Assam to Make Hima Das Sports Ambassador

GUWAHATI: Assam government will organise a state level felicitation and make athlete Hima Das the state's ambassador for sports. Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal announced that a cash award will be given to Das for bringing laurels to the state by winning India's first ever track gold in the 400 metre final at the World U20 Championships in Tampere, Finland. Sonowal, in a statement, said that the Assamese youngster has achieved a rare feat by becoming the first Indian athlete to win gold in such a prestigious track event. -Bikash Singh

New Delhi: India could surpass Britain to become the fifth-largest economy in the world after overtaking France to become No. 6 last vear, cabinet minister Arun Jaitley said, even as he flagged high crude oil prices and the ongoing global trade war as challenges.

Jaitley said the Narendra Modi government's yardstick for performance was how quickly it could eradicate poverty as he noted India's rise following four years of rapid growth.

"If we keep growing at the rate which is being projected, it is likely that next year we will be the fifthlargest economy ahead of Great Britain," Jaitley said in a Facebook post — The Congress Gave Slo-
